Business and Brews: Free Strategy Workshop for Entrepreneurs

Kalispell, MT – Entrepreneurs, dreamers, makers and doers, take note! Business strategist Tara Gentile will be at Kalispell Brewing Company on Saturday, March 5, to offer a free one-hour workshop on turning your personal interest, professional experience or hobby into a profitable business.

Gentile is the founder of Quiet Power Strategy™, a training company focused on turning smart ideas into influence, impact and income.

"I combine intense focus with uncompromising vision and strategy and teach others to do the same," Gentile said. "Are you distracted from your purpose and drained by all the options? Your everyday actions should get you closer to your target, not deeper into the weeds."

For new entrepreneurs and business owners alike, this informal workshop will be a chance to gain a clear sense of purpose, refine your strategy and make clear steps toward your goals.
